BREVE HISTORIA DEL C.D. LEGANÉS

El C.D. Leganés fue fundado el 23 de junio de 1928 por Félix Pérez de la Serna como continuación al proyecto inicial del C.D. Once Leones y vivió sus primeros años en categorías regionales jugando en el Campo de Tiro y en la Plaza Roma.

Su periodo de crecimiento se produjo a partir de los años ochenta, ascendiendo a Segunda División 'B' en 1987 y a Segunda en 1993, con Jesús Polo en la presidencia y Luis Ángel Duque en el banquillo.

Sin embargo, el hito histórico más memorable se produjo el 4 de junio de 2016 con el ascenso a Primera División por primera vez en su historia bajo la presidencia de Victoria Pavón y Asier Garitano dirigiendo al equipo.

Tras su descenso a segunda en 2020 el conjunto blanquiazul volvió a lograr un nuevo ascenso a la categoría de Primera División del fútbol español el 2 de junio de 2024 con Jeff Luhnow como presidente y Borja Jiménez a los mandos del equipo, proclamándose por primera vez en su historia campeón de la categoría.

Jugadores como Edo, Catanha, Miguel Ángel, Víctor, Benjamín Moreno o Mantovani han dado lustre al escudo del laure.

¿POR QUÉ PEPINEROS?

Hasta 1960/70 Leganés era un pueblo de hortelanos y agricultores. En el siglo XVII, muy de mañana estos agricultores cogían su carro lleno de estas hortalizas y verduras camino de Madrid, a la Plaza de la Leocadia. Allí, al monarca de la época, Felipe IV, le servían en la ensalada unos pepinos que le gustaron especialmente y ordenó que a partir de ese momento los pepinos y las ensaladas tenían que servir la misma procedencia que aquellos que había comido. De esta manera, al llegar a la plaza de la cebolla los trabajadores de palacio que compraban la comida de los monarcas, preguntaban por los pepinos de Leganés que tan bien le habían sentado al rey.
